

Facilitator: Keith Neubronner

Keith is the Programmes & Publicity Co-ordinator at Kingsmead Centre. Usually working behind the scenes to organise programmes facilitated by others, he relishes opportunities to present his own, especially where Ignatian spirituality and creativity meet. In June 2017, he ran his first programme at Kingsmead Centre – the Finding God in Drama Retreat.

Prior to joining the Kingsmead team in October 2016, he did a gap-year course in Applied Christian Theatre in Birmingham, England. Keith was the Youth Pastoral Co-ordinator for Church of St Ignatius from 2012 to 2015, and was part of the organising committee that brought the 60-strong Singapore contingent to the 2013 MAGIS-World Youth Day in Brazil. He also participated in the MAGIS-JCAP (Jesuit Conference of Asia-Pacific) Programme in Cambodia in January of this year.
